++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely cloudy but dry.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some clearer spells likely at first, but cloud spreading and thickening overnight to become generally overcast. Mostly dry, but perhaps the odd spot of drizzle by dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Another cloudy start for many, before brighter conditions and sunny spells develop into the afternoon. The best of these across southern parts, whilst some Norfolk coasts will likely stay dull. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudy but mostly dry start Saturday, with sunny spells developing. Winds strengthening Sunday, staying dry with warm sunny spells. Lower confidence Monday, but likely dry with some warm sunny spells.
